Teaching Opportunity

European Summer School Graz, 2010.

Dear Sir or Madam,

The European Summer School Graz 2010 will give upper secondary pupils aged 16 to 21 a comprehensive but basic insight into the political sciences, geopolitics, and European studies. It will allow students to conceive and look behind the backdrop of current political and economic processes.

The altogether teaching approach shall encompass a European perspective, thus enabling the students to apprehend the complexity of inner-EU decision-making.

If you are interested in teaching at our European Summer School Graz 2010 please follow the instructions below.

We are looking forward to receiving your compelling application!

For any further information or suggestions, do not hesitate to contact us.

Best regards,

Tina PYKA
